1 UNITED STATES, ss:

[SEAL.] The President of the United States to the judges of the superior court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the county of Norfolk, greeting:

Because that, in the record and process and also in the rendering in a suit before you, or some of you, between David Sears, junior, Frederick R. Sears, and Knyvet W. Sears, all of Boston, in the county of Suffolk, gentlemen, plaintiffs, and Seth Dewing, of Needham, in the county of Norfolk, trader, and Ephraim Graham, of Fitchburg, in the county of Worcester, gentleman, defendants, in a plea of an action of contract, a manifest error has intervened, to the great damage of the said Dewing and Graham, as in their complaint has been stated, and it is just and proper that the error, if any there be, should be corrected in due manner, and that full and speedy justice should be done to the parties aforesaid in this behalf, you are hereby commanded that, if judgment thereof be given, then, under your seal, you do distinctly and openly send the record and process in the suit aforesaid, with all things concerning them, and this writ, so that you have the same before the Chief Justice and the associate justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, on the first Monday of December next, at Washington, being the present seat of the national government, that, the record and process aforesaid being inspected, they may cause to be done thereupon what of right ought to be done.

Witness the Honorable Salmon P. Chase, esquire, Chief Justice of the said Supreme Court, at Washington aforesaid, this fifth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-third.

3 Bond on writ of error.

Know all men by these presents that we, Seth Dewing, of Needham, in the county of Norfolk, and Ephraim Graham, of Fitchburg, in the county of Worcester, as principals, and Joel H. Hills, of Newton, and William S. Hills, of Boston, as sureties, all in the district of Massachusetts, are held and firmly bound unto David Sears, jr., Frederick R.

Sears, & Knyvet W. Sears, in the full and just sum of five hundred dollars to be paid to the said David Sears, jr., Frederic R. Sears, & Knyvet W. Sears; to which payment, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this third day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

Whereas lately, at a superior court of the commonwealth of Massachusetts for the county of Norfolk, in a suit depending in said court between the said David Sears, jr., Frederic R. Sears, & Knyvet W. Sears, plaintiffs, and said Seth Dewing and Ephraim Graham, defendants, judgment was rendered against the said Dewing & Graham, and the said Dewing & Graham having procured a writ of error and filed a copy thereof in the clerk's office of the said court to reverse the judgment in the aforesaid suit, and a citation directed to the said David Sears, jr., Frederic R. Sears, & Knyvet W. Sears, citing and admonishing them to be and appear at a Supreme Court of the United States, to be holden at Washington on the first Monday of December next:

Now, the condition of the above obligation is such, that if the said Dewing & Graham shall prosecute their said writ of error to effect, and answer all damages and costs, if they fail to make their plea good, then the above obligation to be null and void; else to remain in full force and virtue.

4 The United States of America to David Sears, junior, Frederick R. Sears, and Knyvet W. Sears, all of Boston, in the State of Massachusetts, greeting:

You are hereby cited and admonished to be and appear at a Supreme Court of the United States, to be holden at Washington on the first Monday of December next, pursuant to a writ of error filed in the clerk's office of the superior court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, county of Norfolk, wherein Seth Dewing, of Needham, in the county of Norfolk, trader, and Ephraim Graham, of Fitchburg, in the county of Worcester, gentleman, are plaintiffs in error, and you are defendant in error, to show cause, if any there be, why judgment rendered against the said plaintiff in error, as in the said writ of error mentioned, should not be corrected, and why speedy justice should not be done to the parties in that behalf.

Witness the Honorable Nathan Clifford, associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, this fifth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

Know all men by these presents that we, Seth Dewing, of Needham, in our county of Norfolk, and Ephraim Graham, of Fitchburg, in our county of Worcester, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as principals and as sureties, are holden and stand firmly bound and obliged unto David Sears, junior, Frederick R. 10 On the said third Monday of September, A. D. 1864, the plaintiffs appeared by their attorneys, Sohier & Welch, and entered the above action, and filed the following declaration:

NORFOLK, ss:

Superior court, September term, 1864.

DAVID SEARS, JR., & ALS., vs. SETH DEWING & AL. } Plaintiffs' declaration.

And the plaintiffs say that an indenture was made and concluded on the fourteenth day of August, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, between David Sears, of the one part, and Samuel Battles and Edward Goodhue, of the other part, whereby the said David Sears bargained, released, and confirmed to the said Battles & Goodhue a certain tenement situate on Gravelly Point, in Roxbury, in the county of Norfolk, bounded westerly by a line running parallel with the Tide Mill road, so called, leading from the cross-dam of the Boston & Roxbury Mill Corporation, and twenty-five feet distant easterly from the centre of said Tide Mill road, eighty-six feet one inch; then, turning at a right angle and 11 bounded northerly by other land of said David Sears, two hundred and seven feet; then, turning at a right angle and bounded easterly by a canal dug by the said David Sears, and by Israel Thorndike & Ebenezer Francis, now deceased, eighty-six feet once inch; then, turning at a right angle and bounded southerly by land of the heirs or devisees of said Ebenezer Francis, two hundred and seven feet, with the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging, and subject to the restrictions therein named, to hold to them, the said Battles & Goodhue, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, & assigns, for and during the term of one hundred years, upon condition of their punctually yielding and paying therefor and thereout to the said David Sears, his heirs and assigns, the yearly rent of four ounces two pennyweights and twelve grains of pure gold in coined money, to be paid in four equal and quarter-yearly payments on the first days of the months of September, December, March, and June, in each year, during such term, without any diminution, deduction, abatement, or defalcation whatever for or on account of any taxes, charges, or assessments at any time assessed or laid on the bargained premises, or any improvements thereon, or for or on account of any cause or matter whatever, the first payment to be made on the first day of March next ensuing the date thereof. And in and by said indenture the said Battles and 12 Goodhue, for themselves, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, did, amongst other things, covenant and agree with said David Sears, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, to well and truly pay the said yearly rent therein reserved as aforesaid, on the days and times therein appointed, without fraud, delay, or deduction as aforesaid. And the said Battles & Goodhue entered upon the premises described in said indenture under and by virtue thereof, and continued to occupy the same as tenant under the same. And subsequently all the right, title, and interest in and under said indenture of lease by divers mesne conveyances was assigned and transferred to and vested in the defendants, who entered thereunder and occupied the same. And subsequently, on the tenth day of February, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, the said David Sears, by his deed of that date duly acknowledged and recorded, conveyed all his interest in said land at Gravelly Point, and the reversion thereof, to the plaintiffs, to have and to hold to them, and the survivor, his heirs and assigns, forever; by virtue whereof the said plaintiffs become possessed of said reversion, and entitled to receive the rent thereof under said indenture of lease; and the defendants attorned to them as assignees of the lessors. And subsequently there became due from the defendants to the plaintiffs, as such assignees, as rent under and by virtue of said indenture, and the covenants thereof, on the first day of September current, for the quarter then ending, one ounce & fifteen grains of pure gold, payable in coined money by the terms of said indenture. And the plaintiffs demanded the delivery and payment, according to the terms of said indenture, of said pure gold on said day, but the defendants refused to deliver and pay the same, and still refuse to deliver and pay the same. And the plaintiffs allege that the value of said quantity of pure gold, which ought to have been delivered and paid to them as aforesaid, is one hundred and fifty dollars.

Also that another indenture was made and concluded on the fourteenth day of August, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, between the said David Sears, of the one part, and said Samuel Battles and Edward Goodhue, of the other part, whereby the said David Sears bargained, released, and confirmed to the said Battles & Goodhue a certain tenement, situated on Gravelly Point, in Roxbury, in the county of Norfolk, bounded westerly by a line running parallel with the Tide Mill road, so called, leading from the cross-dam of the Boston & Roxbury Mill Corporation, & twenty-five feet distant easterly from the centre of said Tide Mill road, eighty-six feet, one inch; then, turning at a right angle and bounded northerly by other land of said David Sears two hundred & seven feet; then, turning at a right angle, and bounded easterly by a canal dug by the said David Sears and by Israel Thorndike & Ebenezer Francis, now deceased, eighty-six feet one inch; then, turning at a right angle, & bounded southerly by land of the heirs or devisees of said Ebenezer Francis, two hundred and seven feet, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging, and subject to the restrictions therein named, to hold to them, the said Battles & Goodhue, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, for and during the term of one hundred years, upon condition of their punctually yielding and paying therefor and thereout to the said David Sears, his heirs and assigns, the yearly rent of four ounces two pennyweights and twelve grains of pure gold in coined money, to be paid in four equal and quarter-yearly payments, on the first days of the months of September, December, March, and June, in each year during such term, without any diminution, deduction, abatement, or defalcation whatever for or on account of any taxes, charges, or assessments at any time assessed or laid on the bargained premises, or any improvement thereon, or for or on account of any cause or matter, the first payment to be made on the first day of March next ensuing the date thereof. And it was also covenanted and agreed by and between said parties, in said indenture, that if said rent or any part thereof should be in arrear & unpaid after any day on which the same ought to be paid as aforesaid, then it should be lawful for the said David Sears, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, to sue, recover, and receive the same, without interest & costs & charges, by attachment and sale of any property, real or personal, belonging to said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, successors, and assigns, in the manner in which an action for debt, at the date of said indenture, or might thereafter be by law recoverable. And the said Battles and Goodhue entered upon the premises described in said indenture under and by virtue thereof, and continued to occupy the same as tenants under the same. And subsequently all the right, title, and interest in and under said indenture of lease, by divers mesne conveyances, was assigned and transferred to and vested in the defendants, who entered thereunder and continued to occupy the same. And subsequently, on the tenth day of February, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, the said David Sears, by his deed of that date duly acknowledged and recorded, conveyed all his interest in said land at Gravelly Point, and the reversion thereof, to the plaintiffs, to have and to hold to them, and the survivor, his heirs and assigns forever; by virtue whereof the said plaintiffs became possessed of said reversion, and entitled to 16 receive the rent thereof under said indenture of lease, and the defendants attorned to them, as assignees of the lessors. And subsequently there became due from the defendants to the plaintiffs, as such assignees, as rent under and by virtue of said indenture, and the covenants and provisions thereof, on the first day of September current, for the quarter then ending, one ounce and fifteen grains of pure gold, payable in coined money by the terms of said indenture. And the plaintiffs demanded the delivery and payment, according to the terms of said indenture, of said pure gold on said day, but the defendants refused to deliver and pay the same, and still refuse to deliver and pay the same, whereby an action accrued to the plaintiffs to recover of the defendants the value of said pure gold, to wit, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars.

By his att'y,

SOHIER & WELCH.

And the defendants appeared by E. M. Bigelow, esq., their attorney, and filed the following on the twentieth day of September, 1864:

17 COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Norfolk, ss:

The superior court, September term, 1864.

DAVID SEARS, JR., & AL., PLAINTIFFS, SETH DEWING & ANOTHER, DEFENDANTS.

I, Seth Dewing, one of and in behalf of both the defendants in the above-entitled action, on oath say that I verily believe that they have a substantial defence thereto on its merits, and intend to bring the same to trial.

SETH DEWING.

SUFFOLK, ss: SEPTEMBER 19, 1864.

Subscribed and sworn to before me.

E. M. BIGELOW,
Justice of the Peace.

And the said defendants, by their attorney aforesaid, on the said 20th day of September, A. D. 1864, also filed the following:

18 NORFOLK, ss:

Superior court, Sept. term, 1864.

DAVID SEARS, JR., & ALS., vs. SETH DEWING & AL. } No. 251.—Offer of judgment.

And now the defendants come into court on this twentieth day of September, A. D. 1864, being the second day of said term, and offer and consent in writing to be defaulted, and that judgment shall be rendered against them as damages for the sum of one dollar.

By their attorney,

E. M. BIGELOW.

And the said defendants, by their attorney aforesaid, on the sixth day of October, A. D. 1864, filed the following answer to the plaintiffs' declaration:

19 NORFOLK, ss:

Superior court, Sept. term, 1864.

DAVID SEARS, JR., & ALS., vs. SETH DEWING & AL. } No. 251.—Defendants' answer.

And now the defendants come and for answer say that, on the first day of September, A. D. 1864, they paid the plaintiffs twenty-one dollars and thirty-five cents, in respect of the quarter rent sued for in this action, which was the full amount thereof.

By their att'n'y,

E. M. BIGELOW.

And thence the action was continued to the December term next ensuing. And the parties appeared, and afterwards during said term filed the following agreed statement of facts:

20 NORFOLK, ss:

Superior court, September term, 1864.

DAVID SEARS, JR., & AL., vs. SETH DEWING & AL. } No. 186.

The parties agree to the following statement of facts:

This is an action to recover damages for non-payment of the rent reserved in a lease, a copy whereof is annexed to an agreed statement of facts in an action now pending between the same parties in this court, and numbered 185. The rent sued for is for the quarter ending September 1, 1864. Prior to this date the reversion had duly vested in the plaintiffs; the term had come to the defendants by assignment, and the rent had become due for said quarter. The plaintiffs, on the 1st day of September, demanded payment of the rent, according to the terms of the lease, and the defendants paid them in respect thereof United States notes, (commonly called greenbacks or legal tender,) issued under acts of Congress of February 25, 1862, ch. 33, July 11, 1862, ch. 142, and March 3, 1863, ch. 73, §3, of various denominations, amounting, according to their denominations, to twenty-one dollars, and certain postage currency, so called, amounting, according to its denomination, to thirty-five cents. The plaintiffs received the same, but not in full, for the value of the rent due, and without prejudice to their rights to recover the rent according to the terms of the lease, or the full value thereof, deducting said payment. One ounce and fifteen grains of pure gold were of much greater market value than the United States notes and postage currency so paid at the time of said payment. After the entry of the action the defendants filed an offer of judgment, which, with the declaration and answer, may be referred to.

The court are to enter such judgment as in their opinion is proper upon the foregoing statement; and if necessary the case may be sent to an assessor to estimate, under the direction of the court, the damages which the plaintiffs are entitled to recover.

To have and to hold the same premises to the said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, for and during the term of one hundred years from the date hereof, upon condition of their punctually yielding and paying therefor and thereout to the said David Sears, his heirs and assigns, the yearly rent of four ounces two pennyweights and twelve grains of pure gold, in coined money, to be paid in four equal and quarter-yearly payments, on the first days of the months of September, December, March, and June, in each and every year hereafter during such term, without any deduction, abatement, diminution, or defalcation whatever for or on account 22 of any taxes, charges, or assessments which shall or may hereafter, at any time, be assessed or laid either on the hereby bargained premises, or on the improvements thereof, or for or on account of any matter or cause whatever, the first payment to be made on the first day of March next ensuing the date hereof. And if it shall happen that the said yearly rent hereby reserved, or any part thereof, shall be in arrear and unpaid after any day whereon the same ought to be paid as aforesaid, then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said David Sears, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns to sue for, recover, and receive the same, with interest, and costs, and charges, by attachment and sale of any property, real or personal, belonging to the said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, successors, or assigns, in the manner and form in which an action for debt is now, or hereafter may be, by law recoverable; and if property sufficient to satisfy, pay off, and discharge the said rent so in arrear, with interest, and the charges of recovering the same, shall not be found, then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said David Sears, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns into the hereby bargained premises and the improvements thereon erected wholly to re-enter, and thereout and therefrom wholly expel the said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, and every occupier and occupiers thereof, and the same again to have, hold, reoccupy, and enjoy, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, both at law and in equity, as of his and their former estate, anything hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding, and as if this indenture had not been made. And the said Battles and Goodhue, for themselves, and their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, doth hereby covenant, promise, and agree to and with the said David Sears, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, that they, the said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, shall and will well and truly pay, as aforesaid, all and singular the taxes, rates, charges, and assessments which shall from time to time be assessed and laid on the premises hereby bargained, or which may be made thereon, for or on account of any matter or cause whatever, and shall also well and truly pay the said yearly rent hereby reserved, and every part thereof, as aforesaid, on the days and times hereinbefore mentioned and appointed for payment thereof, without any fraud or further delay, and without any deduction, abatement, diminution, or defalcation whatsoever, for or by reason of the payment of any taxes, rates, charges, or assessments, or for or on account of any matter or cause whatever, and shall and will, within the space of two years from the date hereof, erect, build, and finish, or cause so to be, on the said hereby bargained premises, a good and substantial two-story building or buildings, to be at least of the value of twenty times the amount of yearly rent herein above reserved. And the said Battles and Goodhue covenants, for themselves, and their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns quietly to quit and surrender up the premises at the end of the term herein demised.

And it is agreed that said Sears, his heirs and assigns, at his and their option, and for his and their benefit, may from time to time, and at any time, at the expense of said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, successors, and assigns, procure the said building and premises to be insured from destruction or damage by fire, and also if possible
23 from other detriment, at the full or any partial value or proportion thereof; and in case the same is damaged by fire or otherwise, the said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, successors, or assigns, shall have the proceeds of said insurance, if effected, provided said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, successors, or assigns, rebuild and refit the building and premises in the same manner and of as good materials as those damaged or destroyed, within six months from the time of said destruction or damage, and not otherwise. And the said David Sears, for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, doth hereby covenant and agree with the said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, that the said Battles and Goodhue, or they paying the said hereby reserved yearly rent on the days and times, in the way and manner herein above specified therefor, and performing the covenants and agreements herein contained on Battles and Goodhue, and their part to be done and performed, shall and may, during the above-mentioned term of years, freely, peaceably, and quietly occupy and enjoy the said hereby bargained premises, with all improvements and appurtenances, without any lawful let, suit, hindrance, molestation, or eviction of him, the said David Sears, his heirs or assigns, it being understood that he, and his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns are not to be and shall not be liable to any claim or action for damages, if the said Battles and Goodhue, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, or assigns are at any time hereafter ejected from the premises by any person or persons having title and estate superior and paramount to the title and estate of said Sears, recorded in Norfolk county registry of deeds, libro 64, folios 156, 157, 158, and 159.

And thence the action was continued to the December term then next following. And now the parties appear, and the plaintiffs move the court that the report of the assessor be accepted and judgment be entered thereon. And on the second day of February, A. D, 1869, it is ordered by the court that the report of the assessor be accepted 28 and judgment entered thereon.

(Indorsement on cover:) No. 341. Seth Dewing & Ephraim Graham, plaintiffs in error, vs. David Sears, jr., F. R. Sears, and K. W. Sears. Massachusetts superior court.

Filed 10th December, 1869.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

No. 341.

SETH DEWING AND EPHRAIM GRAHAM, PLAINTIFFS IN ERROR, vs.

DAVID SEARS, JR., F. R. SEARS AND K. W. SEARS.

PLAINTIFFS IN ERROR BRIEF.

1. This case, which is between the same parties as the preceding case No. 340, differs from it in a single circumstance. The action in the Court below was brought to recover a subsequent quarter's rent, which fell due under the same lease, on September 1st, 1864. On that day, the plaintiffs in error paid to the defendants in error, in respect of said quarter's rent, twenty-one dollars in United States notes, and thirty-five cents in postage currency. The State Court gave judgment for the market value, in treasury notes, of the coined money reserved as rent in the lease, on the day it fell due, with interest thereon, deducting the amount paid, which was erroneous.
